Zaupamo v moč glasbe

ri Festivalu Maribor smo vedno stavili na presenečenja. Zgodovina festivala in njegovih predhodnikov – Festivala baročne glasbe in Glasbenega septembra – priča o nizu nepričakovanih zasukov, ki so koncerte baročne glasbe zapeljali k slogovno in konceptualno odprtim prireditvam. Festival Maribor je vedno festival klasične glasbe, a ne da bi bil trdno zapakirana škatlica priljubljenih bombončkov klasične recepture. Tako v tej rumeni škatlici pogosto preseneti kaj, kar je ušlo iz kake druge kuhinje, kot pekoči čili, kisle citrone, slani piš morskih valov ali močan vonj tople kave. Onstran prispodob v slogu Forresta Gumpa – Festival Maribor je v svojem bistvu festival kakovosti, raznovrstnosti in odprtosti. Doživljaj odličnosti in srčnosti. Zanj poskrbijo izjemni glasbeniki najrazličnejših izvorov in nazorov, vedno polni burnih idej. Skupaj z njimi se radi podamo v novo pustolovščino, tudi če nam včasih ni povsem jasno, kam nas pelje. In ko spoznamo njihovo večplastnost in ko se na koncertu razgrijemo novi svetovi, ki očarajo s še ne slišano harmoničnostjo, negotovost izpuhti. Ostane zaupanje, ki nas povezuje in utrdi v prepričanju, da ima glasba neznansko moč in krepi festivalsko skupnost, v kateri je tako rekoč vse mogoče.

Nazadnje smo zaupali Simonu Trpčeskemu, glasbeniku z bleščečimi referenci (tokrat k nam prihaja takoj po londonskem koncertu z Mišem Majskim in Maksimom Vengerovom v Kraljevi Albertovi dvorani) in z nahrbtnikom, polnim idej. Lani nas je navdušil z nenavadnimi povezavami klasične glasbe in muzikantske briljance ljudskega izvora, s sporedi, v katerih se je zahodna klasična glasba prepletala z balkanskim izročilom in sodobnimi kompozicijskimi prijemi. Odprl nam je svoj glasbeni svet in razkril bogastvo aktualnega glasbenega utripa makedonskih in z Balkana izhajajočih glasbenikov. Spoznali smo muziciranje prav posebne vrste, glasbenike, ki so globoki poznavalci evropske tradicije ter hkrati polni intuitivnega veselja do igranja in srčne predanosti glasbi, ki je usodna in obenem neusahljivi vir življenja.

Ponosni smo, da bodo letos znova med nami. Simon Trpčeski bo ponovno poskrbel za vznemirljiva glasbena sodelovanja z mednarodno uveljavljenimi kolegi z zahodnega Balkana ter slovenskimi glasbeniki, s katerimi spleta intenzivna nova sodelovanja. Ponovno bo z nami tudi Gabriel Bebeșelea. Dirigent, ki je lani navdušil s Simfoničnim orkestrom SNG Maribor, se letos predstavlja z izjemnim Transilvanskim državnim filharmoničnim orkestrom in sporedom, ki obljudbla razkošje melodij, ritmov in temperamentov.

Izjemno smo veseli vrnitve Alexandra Gadjeva na naš oder, pianista, čigar mednarodna kariera je po uspehu na mednarodnem pianističnem tekmovanju Frédérica Chopina in laskavem naslovu »BBC-jev umetnik nove generacije« lani doživelva meteorski vzpon. Na festivalu ga bomo pozdravili dvakrat, in sicer na otvoritvenem koncertu s Simfoničnim orkestrom SNG Maribor ter na solističnem recitalu.

Z bleščečo mednarodno kariero se lahko pohvali še ena slovenska festivalska gostja, Nikica Gorič. Priljubljena mariborska sopranistka bo nastopila na koncertu z naslovom Nova prijateljstva, ki povezuje Simona Trpčeskega, violinista Benjamina Zier vogla in violončelista Gala Faganelja.

Nika Gorič bo za glasbo in petje navdušila tudi naše najmlajše občinstvo. Skupaj z Adriano Magdovskim sta za dojenčke in malčke pripravili koncert Zapoj z menoj, tradicionalno matinejo v čudovitem ambientu Viteške dvorane Pokrajinskega muzeja Maribor. Za družine z otroki od petih let dalje bomo poskrbeli s tolkalnim sekstetom Louie's Cage Percussion in hudomušno glasbeno dogodivščino Bumtastično.

Ob skrbi za mlade poslušalce Festival Maribor vselej poskrbi tudi za mlade glasbene talente. Tokrat smo na festivalski oder povabili dvojico mariborskih glasbenih upov: violončelista Ariela Veija Atanasovskega in violinistko Zalo Frangež, z dijaki Konservatorija za glasbo in balet Maribor pa bodo na delavnicah za izvajanje sodobne glasbe delali vrhunski mladi izvajalci in skladatelji.

Zaupajmo v moč glasbe, ki nas zvesto spremlja tudi v časih, ko svet pretresajo krize, in nas povezuje, ko smo razklani. Začutimo jo skupaj na koncertih!

We Believe in the Power of Music

t Festival Maribor, we have always bet on the element of surprise. The history of the festival and of its predecessors, the Festival of Baroque Music and Musical September, bears witness to a series of unexpected twists and turns that led concerts of baroque music to evolve into more stylistically and conceptually open events. Festival Maribor has always been a classical music festival, but not one like a tightly packed box of common chocolates made from a classic recipe. In this particular yellow box, we often find surprises that might have escaped from some other kitchen such as hot chilies, sour lemons, the salty spray of sea waves or the strong smell of hot coffee. Beyond Forrest Gump-style parables, Festival Maribor is fundamentally a festival of quality, diversity and openness, where one experiences excellence and warmth gifted by exceptional musicians of multiple origins and views who are always full of exciting ideas. We happily embark on new adventures with them, even if it is not entirely clear sometimes where they are taking us. Once we get to know their multifaceted artistry, that uncertainty vanishes. New worlds unfold before us at the concerts, captivating us with an unimagined harmoniousness. What remains is the trust that binds us together and reinforces the belief that music has unfathomable power, and is able to nurture a festival community in which virtually anything is possible.

Finally, we believe in Simon Trpčeski, a musician with a brilliant international career (this time he arrives in Maribor right after a concert in London with Mischa Maisky and Maxim Vengerov at the Royal Albert Hall) and carrying a backpack full of fresh ideas. Last year at Festival Maribor he made a most memorable impression fashioning unusual connections between classical musicianship and the virtuosic brilliance of folk musicians in programs that interwove Western classical music with Balkan traditions and more modern compositional approaches. He opened his own private musical world to us to reveal the richness of the musical pulse of Macedonia and the Balkans. We met a very special kind of musician: artists who are deep authorities on European musical traditions yet who were also full of both an intuitive joy for performing and heartfelt devotion to music, which is a crucial and inexhaustible source of life.

We are proud that these very special artists will be with us again this year. Simon Trpčeski will once again take charge of exciting musical collaborations with both internationally established colleagues from the Western Balkans and with top-notch Slovenian musicians. Conductor Gabriel Bebeșlea, who last year made such an indelible impression on us with the SNG Maribor Symphony Orchestra, also returns to the festival to lead the exceptional Transylvanian State Philharmonic Orchestra in a program that promises a luxurious abundance of melodies, rhythms and temperaments.

We are extremely pleased to welcome back Alexander Gadjev, a pianist whose international career has seen a meteoric rise since becoming a "BBC New Generation Artist" and following his success at the Frédéric Chopin International Piano Competition last year. We get to welcome him twice at the festival: at the opening concert with the SNG Maribor Symphony Orchestra and on a solo recital.

And there is another Slovenian festival guest who can claim a brilliant international career, Nika Gorič. The popular young soprano from Maribor will perform on a concert called New Friendships which brings together Simon Trpčeski, violinist Benjamin Zier vogel and cellist Gal Faganel.

Our youngest patrons will also get to experience the artistry of Nika Gorič. The soprano and pianist Adriana Magdovski have prepared a special concert for babies and toddlers entitled Sing with Me for our traditional matinee recital in the wonderful ambience of Knights' Hall in the Maribor Regional Museum. Families with children five and older have the chance to enjoy the hilarious musical adventure Boomtastic with the percussion sextet Louie's Cage Percussion.

Alongside looking after our young listeners, Festival Maribor is also always supportive of young musical talents. This time we've invited a pair of local musical hopefuls to the festival stage: cellist Ariel Vei Atanasovski and violinist Zala Frangež, while top young performers and composers will conduct workshops for the performance of contemporary music with the students from the Maribor Conservatory of Music and Ballet.

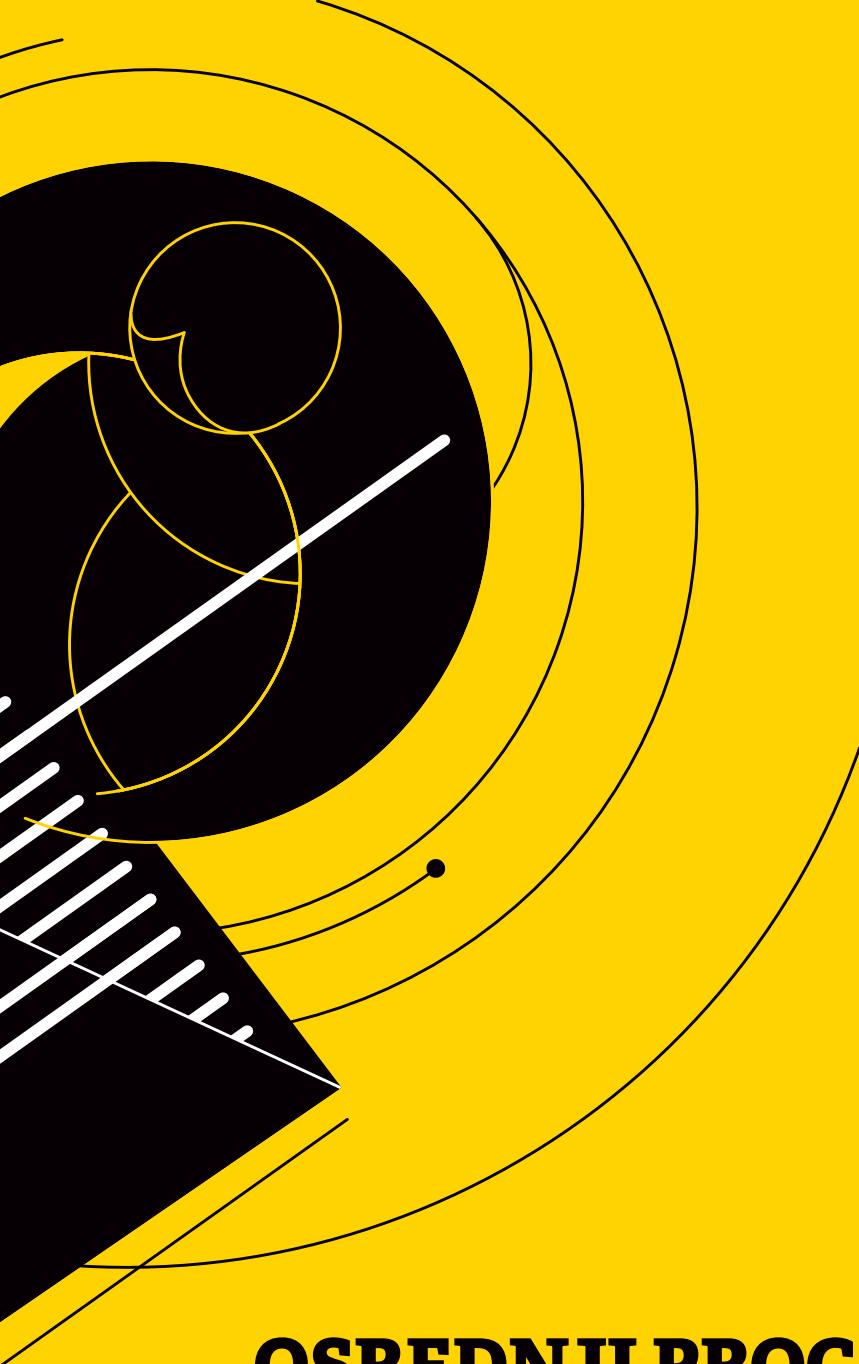

We believe in the power of music, it is our faithful companion even in difficult times when the world is shaken by crises, connecting us when we are torn apart. Let's experience it together!

žarišču otvoritvenega koncerta je vrnitev Alexandra Gadjieva na naše odre. Od svojega zadnjega nastopa na Festivalu Maribor (leta 2017) je ta briljantni pianist iz Nove Gorice požel uspehe, ki so prelomni za njegovo nadaljnjo kariero: prejel je prvi nagradi na uglednem tekmovanju Mojstri klavirja v Monte Carlu ter Mednarodnem klavirskem tekmovanju v Sydneyju, izbran je bil za umetnika nove generacije BBC-ja in vse to še prekosil z izjemnim dosežkom na mednarodnem Chopinovem tekmovanju v Varšavi. Na to tekmovanje, katerega se je prijela oznaka »pianistična olimpijada«, se prijavlja tako rekoč vsak ambiciozen mladi pianist na svetu. Zahodna žirija je Alexandra Gadjieva uvrstila na drugo mesto, poleg tega pa je prejel še posebno nagrado Krystiana Zimermana.

Med tekmovanjem, ki so ga po spletu lahko neposredno spremljali po celem svetu, je Gadžiev veljal celo za favorita. Vendar Alexander Gadžiev ni umetnik, ki bi živel v soju slave zgolj petih minut. Kritik revije Gramophone je o njem zapisal, da ga odlikujejo »improvizacijski instinkti in zavidljiva analitična moč«. In res Gadžieva poznamo kot osebnost, ki je umetniško dozorela v že zelo mladih letih, in zdaj raste v umetnika, ki v obstoječo glasbeno zakladnico vdihuje sveže življenje. Njegova igra je čista, pronicljiva in potrežljiva, kot da bi prihajala izpod prstov mnogo bolj izkušenega koncertnega glasbenika. Pa vendar jo prežema mladostni elan, preseneča nas z odmerjenimi izbruhi energije ter jasno zarisanou potjo, ki se ji pod zanesljivim vodstvom Gadžieva zaupljivo prepustimo.

Gadžiev nam bo na otvoritvenem koncertu postregel s svojo interpretacijo Chopinove glasbe. Nastopil bo v spremstvu zanesljivih simfonikov iz SNG Maribor pod taktirko mednarodno uspešne italijanske dirigentke Gianne Fratta.

Romantično obarvani spored bo popestril košček izjemne slovenske ustvarjalnosti. V letu 2022 bi svojo 100-letnico praznoval Uroš Krek, eden najmarkantnejših slovenskih skladateljev, ki je s svojo izvirnostjo močno zaznamoval domačo glasbeno krajino. Krek je bil ustvarjalec, ki se je zavedal pomena korenin in njihove vloge v mednarodnem kulturnem okolju. V svojem delu je zaobjel mogočno tradicijo evropske klasične glasbe in ljubezen do ljudske glasbe svoje domovine. Kot izvirni eklektik je poslušalcu vedno znal ponuditi nekaj svežega v zavetišču znanega. To neoporečno mojstrstvo se čuti že v eni njegovih zgodnejših skladb, briljantnem Rapsodičnem plesu za orkester.

The highlight of our opening concert is the triumphant return to our stage of Alexander Gadjiev. Since his last appearance at Festival Maribor in 2017, this brilliant pianist from Nova Gorica has achieved a string of decisive and career-making successes: winning first prizes at both the prestigious World Piano Masters competition in Monte Carlo and at the International Piano Competition in Sydney, being selected as a "BBC New Generation Artist" and surpassing all of this with his outstanding performance at the International Chopin Competition in Warsaw. Virtually every ambitious young pianist in the world enters this competition, earning it a reputation as the "Piano Olympics". The demanding jury awarded Alexander Gadjiev second place, while he also received the Krystian Zimerman Prize for the Performance of a Chopin Sonata.

Mr. Gadjiev was even considered the favorite during the competition, which was watched live all over the world via the internet. Alexander Gadjiev is not an artist limited to just 15-minutes of fame, however. A critic for Gramophone magazine wrote that he is distinguished by his "improvisatory instincts and formidable analytic power". Indeed, we already know Gadjiev as a someone who, artistically speaking, blossomed at a very young age and is now maturing into a compelling artist who breathes new life into the standard repertory. His playing is clean, insightful and patient, as if coming from the fingers of a much more experienced concert musician, yet it is permeated with a youthful élan, often surprising us with measured bursts of energy and a clearly delineated path—to which we confidently surrender under his reliable guidance.

Mr. Gadjiev will offer us his interpretations of the music of Chopin at the opening concert and will be supported by the ever-reliable symphony orchestra of SNG Maribor under the baton of the internationally successful Italian conductor Gianna Fratta.

The romantically colored program will be complemented with a miniature gem of Slovenian music. Uroš Krek, one of the most strikingly original Slovenian composers whose innovations left a lasting mark on the domestic musical landscape, would celebrate his 100th birthday in 2022. Krek was an artist who was well aware of the importance of one's roots and of their role in the international cultural environment. His music embraced both the powerful European classical music tradition and his love for the folk music of his homeland. As an eclectic original, he always knew how to offer the listener something fresh wrapped in the familiar. This impeccable mastery can already be felt in one of his earlier compositions, the brilliant Rhapsodic Dance for Orchestra.

Alexander Gadjiev pooseblja stičišče kultur: ima ruske in slovenske korenine, rodil pa se je na slovensko-italijanski meji in hiši pianistov, kjer vlada svetovljansko vzdušje. Zato ne preseneča, da se v spremljavi brezčasne glasbe velikih klavirskih mojstrov, ki so njegova zanesljiva družba od otroštva dalje, počuti doma tako rekoč povsod, kjer njihova glasba lahko zazveni in naleti na občutljiva ušesa.

Prav to premore Festival Maribor in njegovo občinstvo. Gadjiev nam bo ponudil dovolj priložnosti, da se poglobimo v interpretacije Chopinovih del, s katerimi je prepričal eno najzahtevnejših žirij na svetu. A presenetilo bi nas, če nam ob tem ne bi pripravil tudi nekaj vsebinskih zasukov.

Na svojem solističnem recitalu bo predstavil izbor iz Chopinovega zrelega opusa. Ta je pognal iz značilnih romantičnih vzpodbud, nagnjenosti k virtuoznosti in poudarka na izstopajoči subjektivnosti. Klasični formalni okviri so zabrisani in soočeni z občutki fragmentarnosti, nedokončanosti in neskončnosti, melodika je razpeta in močno okrašena, tako kot v sočasni operi. Te impulze je Chopin dodatno obogatil z zmeraj bolj jasno osebnostnoobarvano harmonijo, ki prinaša številna presenečenja in opojnost.

Podobno kot Chopina je kot značilnega romantičnika mogoče razumeti tudi Roberta Schumannja, četudi je njegova glasba močneje prepojena z vsebinskimi podtoni. Skladateljeva osrednja življenska izkušnja je bila povezana z ljubezni do izredno nadarjene pianistke Clare Wieck, katere oče je nasprotoval hčerini poroki z mladim in še neuveljavljenim skladateljem. V enem daljših obdobjij boleče ločitve je Schumann zasnoval Fantazijo v C-duru, op. 17.

Na začetku koncerta pa se bo Gadjiev dotaknil aktualne glasbe. Ameriški skladatelj Kyle Gann je znan tako kot avtor mikrotonalne glasbe kot tudi konvencionalne tonalne glasbe. Leta 2010, ob katastrofalnem razlitju nafte v Mehiskem zalivu, je skladatelj dobil navdih za nepev oziroma molitev za ohranitev našega planeta. Bil je prepričan, da bi morala biti takšna skladba »model ekologije, torej skrbno izbranega materiala, ki bi bil uporabljen čim bolj ekonomično«. Uporabil je ritmični slog, ki ga je razvil iz ljubezni do glasbe ameriških staroselcev, v upanju, da bo moč glasbe v poslušalcu prebudila katarzična čustva. In tako morda vsaj malce izboljšala svet.

Alexander Gadjiev

lexander Gadjev personifies an intersection of cultures: he has Russian and Slovenian roots, and was born on the Slovenian-Italian border to two pianists in a home where a cosmopolitan atmosphere prevails, so it is not surprising that, having been accompanied by the timeless music of the great piano masters that have been his reliable companions since childhood, he feels at home practically everywhere their music can be heard and falls on sensitive ears.

And this is exactly what Festival Maribor and its audience can claim. Mr. Gadjev will offer us plenty of opportunities to delve deeper into his interpretations of Chopin's works—interpretations that convinced one of the most discerning juries in the world. But we would be surprised if he didn't also prepare a few meaningful twists for us.

The program of this solo recital presents a selection of works from Chopin's mature oeuvre, music which grew out of typical romantic impulses; that is, a tendency towards virtuosity and with an emphasis on prominent subjectivity. Classical formal frameworks are erased and confronted with feelings of fragmentation, incompleteness and infinity, while melodies are disjointed and heavily decorated as in opera of the period. Chopin further enriched these impulses with his increasingly clear, very personal harmonies that are as surprising as they are intoxicating.

As with Chopin, Robert Schumann can also be considered a typical romantic, even if his music is more strongly imbued with substantive undertones. The core of composer's life was his love for the extremely talented pianist Clara Wieck, whose father opposed his daughter's marriage to a young and not-yet-established composer. Schumann composed the Fantasia in C major, Op. 17, during one of their long periods of painful separation.

Mr. Gadjev opens the concert with a nod to more current music. The American Kyle Gann is known as a composer of microtonal music as well as of conventional tonal music. In 2010, during the catastrophic oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico, the composer was inspired to write a song or a prayer for the preservation of our planet. He was convinced that such a composition should be "a model of ecology—that is, it should consist of carefully selected material that would be used as economically as possible." He employs a rhythmic style that developed out of his love of Native American music, hoping that the power of the music would awaken cathartic emotions in the listener—and thus maybe, at least, make the world a better place.

ajlepša festivalska srečanja so tista, ki presenetijo z novimi spoznanji in obrodi nova prijateljstva. Širje raznovrstni glasbeniki, ki jih karierne poti vodijo na različne konce sveta, so se srečali prav v okviru Festivala Maribor.

Gal Faganel, ki je svojo karierno pot začel v ZDA, se zdaj kot koncertni glasbenik in profesor na ljubljanski Akademiji za glasbo vedno bolj intenzivno posveča delovanju v Sloveniji. Avstrijski violinist Benjamin Zier vogel je že na začetku svoje profesionalne poti hitro našel mesto v Sloveniji, postal je namreč koncertni mojster Simfonikov RTV Slovenija in obenem z velikim uspehom nadaljeval z muziciranjem v mednarodnih komornih zasedbah. Godalca se bosta skupaj s Simonom Trpčeskim posebej za to priložnost povezala v trio, ki se bo brez odlašanja lotil največjih mojstrovin. Nato se bo Trpčeski pri izvedbi samospevov prelevil v občutljivega spremļevalca karizmatične mariborske sopranistke Nike Gorič.

Navdihujoča spirala glasbenih poznanstev se zrcali v sporedru koncerta. Povezuje skladatelje, katerih življenjsko delo se je vrtelo okrog žarišča napredne glasbe 19. in zgodnjega 20. stoletja, za kar je takrat veljal Dunaj.

V pričakovanju, da bo ob žaru mojstrov dunajske klasike ujel navdih ter sodeloval z najboljšimi glasbeniki v Evropi in ustvaril popolno inštrumentalno glasbo, se je Brahms poslovil od Clare Schumann, ki je ostala v Nemčiji, in se preselil na Dunaj. Vdova njegovega prijatelja Roberta Schumanna je bila Brahmsova priateljica in podpornica ter tudi sama genialna glasbenica. Poleg bleščeče pianistične kariere ji je ob družinskih obveznostih in ovirah, postavljenih pred ženske ustvarjalke v 19. stoletju, uspelo najti čas še za skladanje.

Sredi 19. stoletja se je na Dunaj preselila slovensko-češka družina, v kateri se je rodil Karel Jeraj. Jeraj je bil izredno nadarjen vsestranski glasbenik, ki je bil v mladih letih celo pianist slavnega romunskega skladatelja Georgeja Enescuja. Nato se je posvetil violinini in postal koncertni mojster dunajske opere, takrat še dvorne, ter Filharmonikov, in to ravno v njunem zlatem obdobju, pod vodstvom Gustava Mahlerja. V drugi polovici svojega življenja se je s soprogo, slovensko pesnico Vido Jeraj, preselil v Ljubljano, kjer je delal pod okriljem Glasbene maticice. Poučeval je violinino in vodil novoustanovljeni orkester Glasbene maticice. V tem času je uglašbil več besedil svoje soproge in nam zapustil niz občutenih samospevov, vrednih naše pozornosti.

Naveza novih glasbenih partnerstev tako prihaja v Maribor z dvojno obljubo: to bo koncert v družbi najboljših in hkrati obet novih glasbenih odkritij.

Simon Trpčeski

Nika Gorič

T

The most memorable festival gatherings are those that surprise one with new discoveries and give birth to new friendships. Four diverse musicians whose variously acclaimed careers have led them to different corners of the world are brought together for the first time for a very special concert.

Gal Faganell, who began his career in the USA, now dedicates himself more and more intensively to working in Slovenia as a concert musician and professor of cello at the Ljubljana Academy of Music. Austrian violinist Benjamin Zier vogel quickly found a place in Slovenia at the very beginning of his professional career when he became concertmaster of the RTV Slovenia Symphony and continues to perform with international chamber ensembles with great success. These two well-established string players, together with Simon Trpčeski, form a trio especially for this occasion that will waste no time in tackling two of the greatest masterpieces of the repertoire. In the second half of the concert, Mr. Trpčeski transforms into a sensitive accompanist for the charismatic and increasingly distinguished local soprano Nika Gorič to perform a selection of lieder.

This inspiring mobile of musical acquaintances is reflected in the concert program, which brings together composers whose life's work revolved around the city of Vienna, considered to be a hotbed of progressive music during the 19th and early 20th centuries.

Hoping to be inspired by the aura of the Viennese classical masters and to collaborate with the best musicians in Europe, Johannes Brahms said goodbye to Clara Schumann, who remained in Germany and moved to Vienna when he was 30. Clara, the widow of his friend Robert Schumann, was also a close friend and supporter of the young composer as well as a brilliant musician herself. In addition to her glittering career as a concert pianist and recitalist, she managed to find time for composing, despite domestic obligations (the Schumanns had seven children) and the usual obstacles facing female artists in the 19th century.

In the middle of the 19th century, the Slovenian-Czech family of Karel Jeraj moved to Vienna. Jeraj was an extremely talented and versatile musician who, in his youth, was even a pianist for the celebrated Romanian composer George Enescu. He then dedicated himself to learning the violin and eventually became concertmaster of the Vienna Opera, at that time still known as the Court Opera, and of the Vienna Philharmonic, during their golden age under the direction of Gustav Mahler. In the second half of his life, he and his wife, the Slovenian poet Vida Jeraj, moved to Ljubljana where he worked under the auspices of the national music society Glasbene matica. He taught violin and led the newly founded Glasbene matica symphony orchestra. During this time, he set several of his wife's texts to music, leaving us a series of heartfelt songs worthy of our attention.

This new musical fellowship thus comes to Maribor with a double promise: that this will be a concert in the company of the very best musicians and, at the same time, a harbinger of new musical discoveries.

e lani smo se lahko prepričali, da glasbeniki, zbrani okoli Simona Trpčeskega, buhtijo od temperamenta, žara in mojstrstva, da so iskreno predani najrazličnejši glasbi. Letos se skupina šestih nevsakdanjih virtuoзов vrača z novimi odkritji, izzivi in interpretacijami.

Da se ti glasbeniki kljub pregovorni severnonemški zadržanosti Johannesa Brahma ne ustrašijo njegovega opusa, priča uvrstitev Brahmsovega dela na začetek sporeda. Natančno poslušanje njegove glasbe razkrije, da bi Brahm sam v kakem vzporednem vesolu zlahka dvignil kozarček rakije v pozdrav balkanskim interpretom. Zagotovo bi se ujeli pri izvedbi Tretjega klavirskega kvarteta. Brahm se je tega lotil kot vročično zagnan mlad skladatelj in nato odlašal z objavo. Razlog za obotavljanje najbrž ni bil z golj njegov perfekcionizem, pač pa tudi njegova goreča, a neuresničena ljubezen do Clare Schumann. Ob ustvarjanju te skladbe se je Brahm po lastnih besedah pogosto počutil kot Goethejev romantični junak Werther, zato je tudi ta kvartet poln črnogledih misli strastnega mladega umetnika.

Drugiče je Brahma videl njegov sodobnik Max Bruch, ki je tako opisal razmere: »V zgolj petdesetih letih bo njegov sijaj najimenitnejšega skladatelja vseh časov svetlo žarel, medtem ko se bodo mojega spomnili z golj zavoljo mojega Violinskega koncerta v g-molu.« In se hkrati opravičil: »Imel sem družino, ki sem jo moral prehraniti in poskrbeti za izobrazbo otrok. S svojimi skladbami sem moral služiti denar. Zato sem bil prisiljen pisati dopadljiva in lahko razumljiva dela ... Vedno sem pisal dobro glasbo, pa vendar takšno, ki se je lahko prodala.« Izjavi, da je pisal dobro glasbo, res ne moremo oporekat. Obenem v Bruchovem opusu vendarle najdemo tudi nekaj del, za katera se zdi, da so nastala pod čistim estetskim navdihom glasbene muze. Med temi s svojo lepoto in nenavadno barvitostjo izstopa cikel Osmih skladb, op. 83, katerega del bomo slišali na našem koncertu.

Z Bruchom se predvidljivost našega koncerta konča in uigrani virtuozi bodo nato zavili po bližnjici v sedanost. Po vratolomni glasbi Guillauma Connessonha bomo slišali Koncert za marimbo brazilskega skladatelja Neya Rosaura v izvirni priredbi Vlatka Nuševa, zaključek pa bo pripadel glasbi Pandeja Šahova,obarvani z makedonsko toplino. Vmes bodo glasbeniki odložili note in pripravili presenečenje. Kje piše, da mora koncert komorne glasbe slediti partiturred? Naši glasbeniki vedo, da glasba prihaja iz srca in da živa improvizacija omogoča najbolj neposredno muzikalno izkušnjo. Pravo glasbeno slavlje!

lready last year we were convinced that the musicians gathered around Simon Trpčeski were bursting with temperament, enthusiasm and masterful musicianship, in addition to being sincerely devoted to a wide variety of music. This year, this group of six unusual virtuosos returns with new discoveries, provocations and interpretations.

That these musicians, despite the proverbial North German reticence of Johannes Brahms, are not intimidated by his oeuvre, is evidenced by the inclusion of Brahms's piece at the very beginning of the program. A close listen to his music reveals that Brahms himself, in some parallel universe, would probably have raised a shot of rakia to greet these Balkan interpreters. They would certainly find each other in a performance of the Third Piano Quartet. Brahms set about writing it as a feverishly driven young composer – and then delayed publication. The reason for the hesitation was probably not only his legendary perfectionism, but also his ardent but unrequited love for Clara Schumann. While writing this piece, Brahms, in his own words, often felt like Goethe's romantic hero Werther, thus this quartet is full of the gloomy thoughts of a passionate young artist.

Brahms's friend and contemporary Max Bruch saw his more famous colleague differently, however, describing the situation as follows: "In just fifty years, his brilliance as the greatest composer of all time will shine brightly, while I will be remembered only for my Violin Concerto in G minor." He justified it in the same breath, "I had a family that I had to feed and children's education to provide for. My pieces had to earn money. That's why I was forced to write catchy and understandable works... I always wrote good music, but it was the kind that could be sold." The statement that he wrote good music really cannot be disputed. At the same time, however, in Bruch's oeuvre we also find some works that seem to have been created under the pure aesthetic inspiration of a musical muse. Among these are the cycle Eight Pieces, Op. 83, with their beauty and unusual coloring arising from the uncommon instrumentation, some movements of which we will hear at our concert.

But the predictability of our concert ends with Bruch, as the well-trained virtuosos take a shortcut to the present. Following the break-neck music of Guillaume Connesson, we hear the Marimba Concerto by the Brazilian composer Ney Rosauro in an original adaptation by Vlatko Nušev, while the conclusion of the concert belongs to music of Pande Shahov that is bathed in colorful Macedonian warmth. In between, the musicians set aside their sheet music and prepare a surprise. Where does it say that a chamber music concert must follow notated music? Our musicians know that music comes from the heart and that live improvisation provides the most direct musical experience. It is sure to be a real musical celebration!

edtem ko nekateri ob omembi Transilvanije najprej pomislico na grofa Vlada Tepeša, bolj znanega pod imenom Drakula, mi ta predel Romunije povezujemo z odličnimi glasbeniki. Središče Transilvanije je Cluj, mesto z razgibanim kulturnim in glasbenim življenjem, v katerem domuje eden vodilnih romunskih orkestrov. Transilvanski državni filharmonični orkester kot glavni dirigent vodi karizmatični Gabriel Bebeșlea, ki nas je lani navdušil s simfoniki SNG Maribor. Tokrat nas bo z domačim orkestrom popeljal na živopisni glasbeni sprehod po tej romunski pokrajini.

V Cluju se je leta 1830 rodil čudežni deček Károly Filtsch, pianist in skladatelj nemško-madžarskega porekla. V domovini je Filtsch s svojim igranjem na klavir navduševal že pri rosnih petih letih, nato se je pričela njegova mednarodna pot. Nastopal je na Dunaju, v Budimpešti, Londonu in Parizu ter povsod požel veliko občudovanja. Poučeval ga je Franz Liszt, ki ga je kmalu začel skrbeti učenčev konkurenčni potencial, in verjetno tudi Frédéric Chopin, ki naj bi ga štel za svojega najbolj nadarjenega učenca. Te blešeče obete je tragično presekala usoda, Filtsch je namreč umrl, star komaj petnajst let. Kljub temu nam je zapustil nekaj izjemnih skladb, med katerimi izstopa Uvertura v D-duru, dorečeno mojstrsko delo, nastalo izpod peresa komaj enajstletnega skladatelja.

20. stoletje je bilo priča razcvetu raziskovanja transilvanske ljudske glasbe. Eden njenih najbolj pronicljivih raziskovalcev je bil Béla Bartók, ki so ga transilvanski plesi tako očarali, da jim je posvetil izvirno skladbo, ki to ljudsko glasbo spoštljivo in zvesto prenaša v orkestrski medij. Ta glasba je pritegnila še drugega velikana madžarske glasbe, Zoltána Kodályja, ki je v orkestrsko skladbo pozorno prenesel ples iz regije Marosszék. Tudi velikan sodobne glasbe György Ligeti je bil tesno povezan s Transilvanijo, saj je kot sin madžarskih staršev odraščal v Cljuu. Raziskoval je romunsko ljudsko glasbo in se je kot skladatelj v tradiciji Bartóka in Kodályja želel približati njenemu pristnemu zvoku, kot je razvidno iz njegovega zgodnjega dela, Romunskega koncerta.

Za utrinek iz sodobne ustvarjalnosti bo poskrbelo delo skladatelja mlajše generacije, Dana Variuja iz Cluja, ki ubira postmodernistične poti in stremi k estetsko izvirni mešanici različnih glasbenih slogov. Eno takšnih del je MikroDivertissement, ki ga lahko razumemo kot posvetitev Bartókovemu delu.

Zaključni koncert Festivala Maribor 2022 bo izzvenel v barvitem zvočnem bogastvu, pri čemer bo poskrbljeno tudi za virtuozni blišč: transilvanski glasbeniki bodo z ognjevitim in organsko uigranim solističnim triom Simona Trpčeskega, Aleksandra Krapovskega in Aleksandra Somova počastili vselej navdihujoče delo Ludwiga van Beethovna.

W hile some people think of Count Vlad Tepes, better known as Dracula, when they think of Transylvania, we associate this part of Romania with great musicians. The center of Transylvania is Cluj, a city with a vibrant cultural and musical life that is home to one of Romania's leading orchestras, the Transylvanian State Philharmonic Orchestra. The ensemble is led by the charismatic Gabriel Bebeșelea, a conductor who impressed us last year in his concert with the SNG Maribor Symphony Orchestra. Joined on this occasion by his home orchestra, he will take us on a colorful musical journey across this Romanian landscape.

The child prodigy Károly Filtsch, a pianist and composer of German-Hungarian origin, was born in Cluj in 1830. After impressing local audiences with his piano playing already at the tender age of five, his international career quickly took off. He performed with great success in Vienna, Budapest, London and Paris, earning fervent praise wherever he went. He eventually studied with Franz Liszt, who soon worried his student was fast becoming a potential rival, and also probably with Frédéric Chopin, who is said to have considered him his most talented student. Tragically, his exceptionally bright future was cut short by tuberculosis just two weeks shy of his fifteenth birthday. Despite his brief life, Filtsch left us some remarkable compositions, among which the Overture in D major, written when the composer was barely eleven years old, stands out as an unequivocal masterpiece.

The early 20th century witnessed a flourishing of research into Transylvanian folk music. One of its most insightful researchers was Béla Bartók, who was so captivated by the dance music he heard in Transylvania that he decided to reverently and faithfully transfer it to the orchestral medium. This infectious music attracted another giant of Hungarian music, Zoltán Kodály, who carefully transcribed dances from the Marosszék region for orchestra. György Ligeti, a giant of modern music, was also closely connected to Transylvania, having grown up in Cluj as the son of Hungarian parents. He carried out his own research on Romanian folk music and, in the tradition of Bartók and Kodály, sought to emulate its authentic sound in his works, as can be seen in his early Concert românesc.

A glimpse into a more contemporary approach is provided by a work from Dan Variu, a composer from Cluj of the younger generation with a postmodernist bent who strives for an aesthetically original mix of different musical styles. One such piece is MikroDivertissement, which pays homage to Bartók's music.

Thus the closing concert of Festival Maribor 2022 resounds in a richly colorful cornucopia of sound with a bow also to virtuosic brilliance: the Transylvanian musicians will be joined by the fiery and organically unified solo trio of Simon Trpčeski, Aleksandar Krapovski and Aleksandar Somov to perform the always inspiring music of Ludwig van Beethoven.

Zato ne preseneča, da so koncerti te zasedbe pravi družinski hiti. oomtastic comprises a colorful group of gentlemen: Yo-yogi Joachim, Krištof the Clown, Country Boy Sebastian, Max the Rapper, Florian "Mr Klingeling" and Simon the Frenchman. When they play together, Krištof and Mr. Klingeling are constantly pushing to be in front to steal the spotlight. Will these six friends manage to play together and not against each other?

Louie's Cage Percussion delights children with plenty of humor, thrills youngsters with lively rhythms and acrobatic antics, while parents get to enjoy virtuoso and varied music, so it is not surprising that the ensemble's concerts are real hit with families. Boomtastic is a virtuosic witty concert-theatre circus where the percussionists become multi-instrumentalists and, above all, breathtaking masters of Boomwhackers, plastic pipes of different lengths and colors that one must hit the ground with in the right sequence and at the right moments. And that's how an exciting musical performance is made, the likes of which you've definitely never seen—excuse me, heard—before.

redstava na Glavnem trgu v Mariboru pritegne naključne mimoidoče in hkrati ponuja globlji razmislek o interakciji med globalno strukturo in svobodno ustvarjalnimi glasovi posameznikov. Godalni otoki so z violinskimi skupinami poseljeni odri, postavljeni okoli glavnega odra (otoka), kjer domuje DJ z bendom. Občinstvo hodi med otoki, si s tem prilagaja zvočno sliko in tako aktivno sodeluje, ne zgolj pasivno opazuje. Kako glasen je lahko danes posameznikov glas?

Ustvarjalci so stari dediščini dodali sodobne tendre. Stara umetnost je v tem primeru disco glasba iz 70-ih in 80-ih let. Zvoki violine so bili v takratni popularni glasbi klasika. Solani violinisti so izvajali parte na visoki tehnični ravni. Novi trendi, predstavljeni na tem dogoku, so tradicionalni zvoki violine, ki opisujejo izjemno raznolikost evropskih regij. Politične meje niso poenotile regionalnih violinskih zvokov, saj je v Evropi še zmeraj na tisoče jasno prepoznavnih violinskih stilov, ki v glasbeni predstavi najdejo svoje mesto znotraj globalnih glasbenih zapuščin. Disko ritmom se priključuje tudi več stoletij stara dediščina klasične glasbe in jazzovska glasba, ki se vzajemno oplajata z regionalnimi zvoki.

Otoki so razporejeni v obliki zahodnega tonskega sistema. Harmonija v glasbi se odraža tudi v oblikovanju svetlobe.

Še danes je med ljudmi veliko bistrih in modrih idej, ki pa zahtevajo sodelovanje in podporo globalnih struktur, da se lahko aktivno sodelovanje posameznikov uresniči. Ta predstava omogoča integracijo raznorodnih lokalnih umetnikov in lokalnih zvokov v vsaki verziji predstave na drugih lokacijah.

Uživajmo v nastopu virtuoзов in se na območju enega trga sprehodimo po evropskih zvočnih pokrajinah.

This event, situated on Maribor's Main Square, aims to attract random passers-by while at the same time offering a deeper reflection on the interaction between the current global structure and the freely creative voices of individuals. String Islands are stages, populated by groups of violins, that are placed around the main stage (island) where the DJ and the band reside. The audience walks between the islands, thereby continuously adjusting the soundscape and becoming not just a passive observer but an active participant. How loud can the voice of an individual be today?

To older traditions the artists have added modern trends—the “classic art” in this case being disco music from the 70s and 80s. The sound of the violin was a classic feature of the popular music of the era. Trained violinists performed the arrangements at a high technical level. The newer trends presented at this event are traditional violin playing styles representing the extraordinary diversity of various regions across Europe. Political borders have not homogenized local violin playing techniques or sounds, as there are still thousands of clearly recognizable styles of violin playing in Europe which find a place in this musical performance within global musical legacies. Disco rhythms are also joined by the centuries-old heritage of classical music and jazz music, which mutually interact with more regional-specific sounds.

The islands are arranged in the form of the western tonal system. The harmonies in the music are also reflected in the lighting design.

Even today, there are many bright and wise ideas among people, but they require the cooperation and support of global structures so that cooperation among individuals can occur. This performance also allows for the integration of diverse local artists and local sounds in each version of the presentation in different locations.

Let's enjoy the performance of virtuosos and, in the space of a single town square, walk through European soundscapes.

.abeceda [ansambel za novo glasbo]

.abeceda [new music ensemble]

Delovanje ansambla .abeceda [ansambel za novo glasbo] je mogče razumeti dvoplastno: gre za združennje glasbenikov, ki lahko delujejo kot standardna komorna zasedba, specjalizirana za izvajanje sodobne glasbe, obenem pa je to tudi širša platforma, vpeta v delovanje celotnega Inštituta .abeceda. V tem pogledu mladim skladateljem ponuja priložnost za ustvarjanje, preizkušanje in predstavitev in je torej nekakšen laboratorij za infrastrukturno oporo.

The .abeceda [new music ensemble] is an integral part of the .abeceda Institute. Its activities can be understood in two ways – as an association of musicians who can perform as a standard chamber ensemble specialized in the performance of contemporary music and, on the other hand, as a wider platform firmly embedded within the activities of the Institute. In this latter respect, it offers young composers the opportunity to create, workshop and present new music. It is a kind of laboratory for infrastructural support.

Filharmoničnim orkestrom iz Marseilla, turnejo s Praško filharmonijo (PKF) in snemanje zgoščenke z Bamberškim simfoničnim orkestrom, na katerih so dela Georgeja Enescuja, ki jih je orkestriral Bebeșelea. Gabriel Bebeșelea bo leta 2023, ko bo romunsko mesto Temišvar nosilec naziva evropska prestolnica kulture, rezidenčni dirigent Filharmoničnega orkestra Banatul. Za to priložnost je pripravil niz medsebojno povezanih koncertov, ki bodo vrhunc doživeli z izvedbami monumentalnega dela Pesmi iz Gurre Arnolda Schönberga v Nemčiji in Romuniji.

Izkazal se je kot izjem operni dirigent, zato je že leta 2011 postal prvi dirigent Romunske narodne opere v mestu Iași in se s tem zapisal v zgodovino kot najmlajši dirigent s takšnim nazivom v Romuniji. Leta 2015 je postal prvi dirigent Narodne romunske opere v Cluj-Napoci. V sezoni 2022/2023 bo vodil novo produkcijo opere Manon Lescaut v Operi SNG Maribor.

Gabriel Bebeșelea ob dirigiranju tudi zavzeto odkriva in raziskuje pozabljeno glasbo ter je tako zaslужen za odkritje več dolgo pozabljenih glasbenih mojstrovin. Leta 2017 je ustanovil ansambel Musica Ricercata, mednarodni umetniški kolektiv, ki je izurjen v zgodovinsko informiranih izvedbah in prinaša na svetlo ponovno odkrite mojstrovine. S Simfoničnim orkestrom Berlinskega radia je posnel zgoščenko z novoodkritimi Enescujevimi deli (oratorij Duhovi in Pastoralna - fantazija za mali orkester). Zgoščenka je izšla pri založbi Capriccio.

Gabriel Bebeșelea (b. 1987) has been called one of the finest Romanian conductors of recent generations. His enthusiasm and musicality have taken him to the podiums of some of the world's leading orchestras, including the Rundfunk-Sinfonieorchester Berlin, Konzerthausorchester Berlin, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, Orchestre National du Capitole de Toulouse, symphony orchestras of Barcelona and Singapore, the National Philharmonic Orchestra of Russia, the Evgeny Svetlanov State Academic Symphony Orchestra of Russia and the Tonkünstler Orchestra.

In 2020, Mr. Bebeșelea took over as principal conductor of the George Enescu Philharmonic Orchestra in Bucharest. He has been principal conductor of the Transylvanian State Philharmonic Orchestra in Cluj-Napoca since 2016.

Current concert highlights include appearances with the Marseille Philharmonic Orchestra, a tour with the PKF-Prague Philharmonia, and a CD recording with the Bamberg Symphony Orchestra with works by George Enescu and orchestrated by Mr. Bebeșelea. In 2023 Gabriel Bebeșelea will be the Resident Conductor of the European Capital of Culture 2023 - Timisoara and of the "Banatul" Philharmonic Orchestra of that same city. In this role he has prepared a full-season of conceptually interconnected concerts, culminating with performances of Arnold Schoenberg's monumental Gurrelieder in Germany and Romania.

A remarkable opera conductor, Mr. Bebeșelea was named principal conductor of the Romanian National Opera of Iași in 2011, becoming the youngest ever principal conductor in Romania. In 2015 he was named principal conductor of the National Romanian Opera House of Cluj-Napoca. In the 2022/23 season, Gabriel Bebeșelea will lead a new production of Manon Lescaut at the Slovenian National Theater Maribor.

In addition to conducting, Gabriel Bebeșelea is passionately active in researching and rediscovering long forgotten or neglected musical masterpieces. To bring such music to light, he founded the Ensemble Musica Ricercata, an international artistic collective dedicated to historically informed performances, in 2017. With the Rundfunk-Sinfonieorchester Berlin, he recorded a CD featuring George Enescu's rediscovered oratorio Strigoii (The Ghosts) and his Pastorale - Fantaisie pour petite orchestre (edited by Gabriel Bebeșelea). The CD was released on the Capriccio label.

Alongside his success at home he has continued to develop his skills with some of the world's leading conductors. In 2015 he had the opportunity to study with legendary conductors Bernard Haitink and Kurt Masur. In 2011 he was awarded a scholarship enabling an internship with the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra Amsterdam, where he had the possibility to assist at the rehearsals and concerts with such renowned conductors as Mariss Jansons, Bernard Haitink, Herbert Blomstedt, Christoph von Dohnányi, Philippe Herreweghe, David Zinman and Eliahu Inbal.

Mr. Bebešela made a big impression already in the first years of his studies, winning first prizes at the Lovro von Matačić Conducting Competition in Zagreb (2015) and at the Jeunesse Musicale Conducting Competition in Bucharest (2011). Blešeča pianistična kariera Gianne Fratta se je začela v njenih najstniških letih, po osvojitvi številnih nagrad na državnih in mednarodnih tekmovanjih pa je bodisi kot solistka bodisi kot članica ansambla Umberto Giordano nastopila na mnogih pomembnih koncertnih prizoriščih na svetu, od Berlina, New Yorka, Tel Aviva, Mumbaja, Kalkute, Istanbula in Stockholma do Vilne, Hajfe, Rima, Seula, Montevidea in Buenos Airesa.

Njen dirigentski debi je bil leta 1998 balet Pulcinella Igorja Stravinskega. Vodila je številne orkestrske sestave (v mnogih primerih kot sploh prva dirigentka), med katerimi velja omeniti orkestre, kot so Berlinski filharmoniki, Orkester opernega gledališča v Rimu, Simfonični orkester iz Macaa, Cappella Istropolitana iz Bratislave, Orkester Mimesis (orkester festivala Maggio Musicale Fiorentino), Regionalni orkester Toskane, Orkester Kraljeve akademije v Londonu, Orkester fundacije Toscanini iz Parme, orkester Nuova Scarlatti iz Neaplja, Ruski simfonični orkester, Simfonični orkester iz Kijeva, Simfonični orkester Greensboro, Orkester Île de France, orkester Sungshin iz Seula, Filharmonija iz Montevidea, orkester Nacionalne opere iz Beograda idr.

Ruski dirigent Jurij Ahrnovič je o njej dejal, da »še nikoli ni spoznal tako mladega dirigenta oziroma dirigentke, ki bi posedovala tako talentirano roko in srce«. In to je večkrat potrdila z osvojenimi odličji na uglednih dirigentskih tekmovanjih v Londonu, Besançonu, Firencah in drugod.

Bila je gostja pomembnih glasbenih institucij po svetu (Carnegie Hall v New Yorku, Teatro Coliseo v Buenos Airesu, Teatro Solis v Montevideu, Art Center v Seulu, Smetanova dvorana v Pragi, Teatro São Pedro, Opera v Rimu itd.) in sodelovala z mednarodno uveljavljenimi umetniki, kot Marca 2009 ji je tedanjí predsednik Republike Italije, Giorgio Napolitano, podelil častni naziv vitezinje Republike Italije za mednarodne umetniške dosežke in promocijo italijanske kulture.

Italian conductor and pianist Gianna Fratta became interested in conducting already as a child. She completed her studies in piano, composition and then conducting with honors at the Niccolò Piccinni Conservatory of Music in Bari. She continued her training with Russian conductor Yuri Ahronovich at the Accademia Chigiana in Siena, where she was awarded the Diploma with Honors. Concurrently with this, she completed her law studies.

Gianna Fratta's brilliant career as a pianist began during her teenage years. After winning numerous prizes at national and international competitions, she performed both as a soloist and as a member of the Umberto Giordano ensemble at many important concert venues around the world, from Berlin, New York, Tel Aviv, Mumbai, Kolkata, Istanbul and Stockholm to Vilnius, Haifa, Rome, Seoul, Montevideo and Buenos Aires.

Her conducting debut came with Igor Stravinsky's ballet Pulcinella in 1998. Since then she has led many orchestras (in many cases as the first female conductor), including the Berlin Philharmonic, the Orchestra of the Opera Theater in Rome, the Macao Symphony Orchestra, the Cappella Istropolitana from Bratislava, the Mimesis Orchestra (the orchestra of the Maggio Musicale Fiorentino festival), the Regional Orchestra of Tuscany, the Symphony Orchestra of the Royal Academy Orchestra in London, the Toscanini Foundation Orchestra of Parma, Nuova Scarlatti Orchestra of Naples, the Russian Symphony Orchestra, the Kyiv Symphony Orchestra, the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra, Orchester Île de France, Sungshin Orchestra of Seoul, the Philharmonic of Montevideo, the orchestra of the National Opera of Belgrade and many others.

The Russian conductor Yuri Ahronovich said about her that he has "never met such a young conductor who possessed such talented hands and heart". She has repeatedly confirmed this observation by winning awards at prestigious conducting competitions in London, Besançon, Florence and elsewhere.

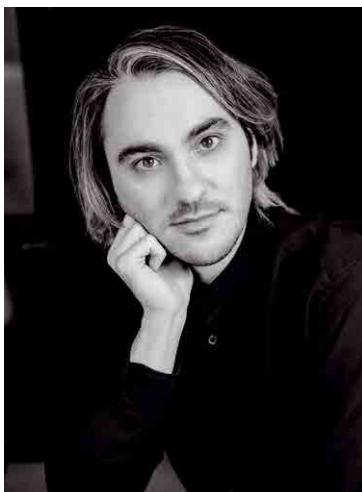

She has been a guest of many important musical institutions around the world (including Carnegie Hall in New York, Teatro Coliseo in Buenos Aires, Teatro Solis in Montevideo, Art Center in Seoul, Smetana Hall in Prague, Teatro São Pedro, Opera in Rome, and others) and has collaborated with internationally established artists such as Mirella Freni, Carla Fracci, Renato Bruson, Daniele Abbado, Rajna Kabajvanska, François-Joël Thiollier, Cecilia Gasdia and Chloë Hanslip.

Gianna Fratta is currently professor of composition at the Umberto Giordano Conservatory of Music in Foggia, guest lecturer at Sungshin University in Seoul and gives conducting master classes at universities around the world. In March 2009, the then President of the Republic of Italy, Giorgio Napolitano, awarded her the honorary title of Knight of the Republic of Italy for her international artistic achievements and for the promotion of Italian culture.

Alexander Gadjeiev

V Alexandru Gadjeievu sta se združili glasbena izkušenost in srednjeevropska kultura, za kar imata po eni strani zasluge njegova starša, klavirska pedagoška in glasbenika, po drugi pa njegovo domače mesto, Nova Gorica, ki je križišče narodov, kultur in jezikov. Oboje je odločilno vplivalo na njegovo sposobnost, da vpije in predela različne glasbene sloge ter jih preoblikuje po lastnem okusu.

Alexander Gadjeiev je kulturni ambasador evropske prestolnice kulture Nova Gorica/Gorizia 2025.

Leta 2021 je osvojil prvo nagrado na Mednarodnem klavirskem tekmovanju v Sydneyju ter drugo na Mednarodnem Chopinovem tekmovanju, poleg tega pa še posebno nagrado Krystiana Zimermana za izvedbo Chopinove sonate. V letih 2019–2021 je bil »BBC-jev umetnik nove generacije«, s čimer je dobil priložnost nastopiti na uglednih britanskih festivalih in koncertnih dvoranah, tudi v dvorani Wigmore. Vse njegove koncerte je BBC posnel in predvajal. Kot letošnji prejemnik nagrade Terenca Judda ima zagotovljene nastope z orkestrom Hallé do leta 2023.

Pri dvajsetih letih je osvojil prvo nagrado na Mednarodnem klavirskem tekmovanju Hamamatsu, na katerem je prejel tudi nagrado občinstva. Dve leti za tem je osvojil prvo nagrado na tekmovanju Svetovnih mojstrov klavirja v Montecarlu.

Gadjeieva je najprej poučeval njegov oče. Že kot devetletni deček je prvič nastopil z orkestrom, pri desetih letih pa na solističnem koncertu. Leta 2013 je končal šolanje z najboljšimi ocenami, kar mu je omogočilo, da se je udeležil tekmovanja Premio Venezia, namenjenega najboljšim mladim talentom v Italiji, in zmagal. Nato je študiral na salzburškem Mozarteumu pri Pavlu Gililovem, letos pa je diplomiral na Visoki šoli Hannsa Eislerja v Berlinu, in sicer pri Eldarju Nebolsinu.

Gadjeieva z vseh concev vabijo na nastope; tako je med drugim nastopil na Festivalu Verbier, Festivalu MiTo v Torinu, Chopinovem festivalu v Dusznikih, na klavirskem festivalu Rafaela Orozca v Cordobi, Festivalu Ljubljana, pariškem Festivalu Animato, Salzburškem festivalu, Mednarodnem festivalu Piano de La Roque d'Anthéron, v pariški Dvorani Cortot, v beneškem gledališču La Fenice, v več japonskih mestih, na Moskovskem konzervatoriju, v Salt Lake Cityju, Istanbulu, Barceloni, Rimu, Milianu in tako dalje.

Gadjeiev je kot solist nastopil z orkestri, kot so Orkester Padove in Benečije, Simfonični orkester gledališča La Fenice, Simfonični orkestri iz Tokia, Kjota, Prage in Jeruzalema ter Filharmonični orkester iz Nagoe.

Aprila letos je zmagoslavno debitiral z Narodnim orkestrom RAI pod takatirko slovitega Fabia Luisija, ki ga je takoj ponovno povabil k sodelovanju. Jeseni se bo podal na obsežno turnejo po Avstraliji in Aziji, prihodnje poleteja pa ga čaka nova japonska turneja.

Obstajajo številni tako radijski in televizijski kot tudi studijski in koncertni posnetki z Gadjevom. Leta 2018 je izšel njegov debitantski album Literary Fantasies z deli Liszta in Schumanna, leta 2021 pa je pri založbi Decca izšel posnetek njegovega nastopa na tekmovanju v Sydneyju.

Musical experience and Central European culture: Alexander Gadjev owes this on the one hand to his family, both of his parents are piano teachers and musicians, and on the other hand to his hometown, the Italian-Slovenian border town of Gorizia, a natural crossroads of peoples, cultures and languages. Both factors have had a decisive influence on his natural ability to absorb and process different musical styles and languages and to reshape them to his own taste.

He is the cultural ambassador of his hometown "Nova Gorica/Gorizia, European Capital of Culture 2025".

In 2021 he won 1st prize at the International Piano Competition in Sydney as well as 2nd prize and the special "Krystian Zimerman Prize for the Performance of a Chopin Sonata" at the International Chopin Competition in Warsaw.

Gadjev was a "BBC New Generation Artist" from 2019 to 2021, which gave him the opportunity to perform at such renowned British festivals and concert halls as Wigmore Hall, London, among others, and to collaborate with various orchestras. All of his concerts in the scope of this accolade were recorded and broadcast by the BBC. He was also the winner of the 2022 Terence Judd Award, which will lead to further engagements with the Hallé Orchestra through 2023.

At the age of 20 he won First Prize at the Hamamatsu International Piano Competition, where he also received the "Audience Award," and at 22 he took First Prize at the "World Piano Masters" in Montecarlo.

Taught by his father, Alexander played with an orchestra for the first time at the age of nine and gave his first solo recital at the age of ten. In 2013 he finished his secondary education with top marks, enabling him to take part in the Premio Venezia—a competition reserved for the best young talents in Italy—where he won the 30th edition of this prize. He subsequently went on to study at the Mozarteum in Salzburg with Pavel Gililov and at the Hanns Eisler-Hochschule in Berlin with Eldar Nebolsin, graduating in spring 2022.

Alexander Gadjev regularly accepts invitations from Europe, Asia and the USA, including from the Verbier Festival, the MiTo Festival in Turin, the "Chopin" Festival in Duszniki, the Rafael Orozco Piano Festival in Cordoba, the Ljubljana Festival, the Bologna Festival, Settimane Musicali at the Teatro Olimpico in Vicenza, the Festival Animato de Paris, the Salzburg Festival, the Festival International de Piano de La Roque d'Anthéron, Teatro La Fenice, Kioi Hall and Bunka Kaikan in Tokyo, Kitara Concert Hall in Sapporo, the Hyogo Performing Arts Center in Osaka, Salle Cortot in Paris, the Moscow Conservatory and the Aldeburgh Festival, as well as concert halls in Salt Lake City, Istanbul, Barcelona, Rome and Milan.

As a soloist, Alexander Gadjev has performed with numerous orchestras such as the Orchestra di Padova e del Veneto, the Orchestra Sinfonica del Teatro della Fenice, the Tokyo Symphony Orchestra, the Nagoya Philharmonic Orchestra, the Kyoto Symphony Orchestra, the Prague Symphony Orchestra and the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra.

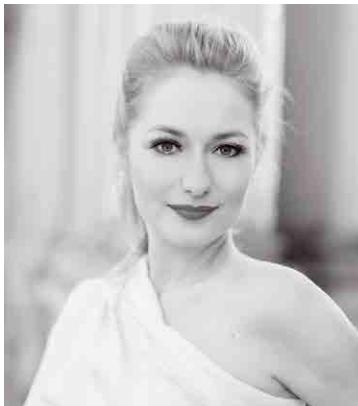

In April 2022 he made his triumphant debut with the Orchestra Nazionale della RAI under the baton of Fabio Luisi, which led to an immediate re-invitation. In October/November 2022 he will tour Australia and South-east Asia for more than 50 days, and a tour of Japan is announced for early summer 2023.

He has made numerous recordings for radio and television both in the studio and live in concert. In 2018 his debut album "Literary Fantasies" including pieces by Liszt and Schumann was released on the Acousense label, while the live recording from the International Piano Competition in Sydney was released on DECCA in 2021.

Tilen Lebar

Tilen Lebar (1993) je saksofonist, skladatelj in improvizator ter eden tistih mladih glasbenikov, ki segajo

onkraj svoje prvotne vloge interpreta, inštrumentalista. Po končanem študiju na Konservatoriju za glasbo in balet v Mariboru pod mentorstvom Petra Krudra, neformalnem kompozicijskem mentorstvu Uroša Rojka na ljubljanski Akademiji za glasbo, diplomskem in magistrskem študiju saksofona v razredu Matjaža Drevenskega in Mihe Rogine ter izpopolnjevanju v razredu Raafa Hekkeme in Larsa Niederstrasserja je opravil še magistrski študij kompozicije na Kraljevem konservatoriju v Haagu na Nizozemskem, in sicer v razredih Petra Adriaansza, Cornelisa de Bondta in Guusa Janssena. V Lebarjevi glasbi opazimo posebno pozornost do individualnih inštrumentalnih tehnik in njihove barvne skladnosti, temeljito poznavanje tradicije zahodne umetne glasbe in hkrati tudi eksperimentalnih tokov. Njegova dela so bila izvedena na festivalih, kot so ISCM Svetovni glasbeni dnevi, Gaudeamus Muzieweek, Leicht über Linz, Forum Nove glasbe, ISC Svetovni kongres saksofona in Opera Forward Festival. Na 67. skladateljski tribuni Rostrum je njegovo delo Staticotion za akordeon, zvočni zapis in elektroniko v živo doseglo uvrstitev v priporočena dela med mladimi avtorji ter tudi v splošni kategoriji. Simfonični orkester SNG Maribor

The Symphony Orchestra of the Slovenian National Theatre Maribor

Simfonični orkester SNG Maribor je osrednji inštrumentalni sestav v podravski regiji z razmeroma dolgo poustvarjalno tradicijo. Pesta zgodovina orkestra svopoda z delovanjem njegove matične ustanove, mariborske operne hiše, ki je od leta 1919 doživljala številne preobrazbe, na katere so vplivale pomembnejše politične in kulturne spremembe, kot so padec habsburške monarhije po prvi svetovni vojni, padec nacizma po letu 1945 in nenazadnje slovenska osamosvojitev leta 1991.

Le dve leti po osamosvojitvi Slovenije je orkester začel delovati pod imenom Mariborska filharmonija. Ta je bila kot društvo ustanovljena 11. junija 1993, vendar je delovala le do novem-bra 2004, ko je pod imenom Simfonični orkester SNG Maribor začela prirejati samostojne simfonične koncerte v okviru matične hiše. Ta praksa se je predvsem po izgradnji Velike dvorane ukoreninila kot poustvarjalna stalnica SNG Maribor. Orkester, ki je nepogrešljivi del koncertov ter opernih in baletnih predstav mariborske Operе in baleta, se pod vodstvom številnih mednarodno uveljavljenih dirigentov iz Slovenije in tujine suvereno posveča poustvarjanju inštrumentalne glasbe in glasbenogledaliških del različnih žanrov od baroka, klasicizma in glasbe 19. in 20. stoletja do naj aktualnejših simfoničnih del.

The Symphony Orchestra of the Slovenian National Theatre Maribor is one of the leading ensembles in Slovenia and has a long-standing tradition in both operatic and orchestral repertoire. The rich history of the orchestra is closely linked with its home institution, the Maribor Opera, where the orchestra takes a two-part role: besides all the opera performances of the Maribor Opera it also performs a Symphony Cycle each season as a part of its regular programme.

The orchestra performs under numerous acclaimed conductors from Slovenia and abroad. It thrives in various genres, from opera and ballet to musicals, and regularly performs music of all periods: from Baroque and Classicism up to 19th and 20th century music, as well as contemporary music.

Po poslušanju različnih tolkalnih sestavov so se odločili, da bodo naredili nekaj posebnega, nekaj, česar občinstvo tolkalnih sestavov običajno nima priložnosti doživeti. Tako je leta 2014 nastala skupina LCP, katere veliki izziv je združiti dramsko igro, komponiranje in kvalitetno poustvarjanje ter igranje raznovrstne glasbe, od operne in simfonične do filmske, jazzovske in elektronske glasbe, vključno z dubstep in drum'n'bass odvodi, podprtanimi z elektronskimi učinki.

Običajno razprodane glasbene predstave skupine LCP so bile na ogled v dunajski Koncertni hiši in Ljudski operi, v hamburški Filharmoniji na Labi, v Gärtnerplatztheateru v Münchenu in Stari operi v Frankfurtu.

Named after the Monkey King Louie and the composer John Cage, the group Louie's Cage Percussion consists of six talented young musicians in their twenties. They are some of the youngest members of renowned Austrian and Slovenian orchestras including the Vienna Volksoper, the Lower Austria Tonkünstler Orchestra, the Graz Opera and Slovenian National Theatre Maribor and play all repertoires of classical music. Besides their studies of classical music, they have always been interested in jazz, rock and electronic music and have played in various bands and broadened their knowledge of various musical genres.

After listening to many percussion ensembles they decided to do something different, something the general audience of common percussion ensembles had not yet experienced.

Tolkalna skupina Louie's Cage Percussion

In 2014 LCP was finally established and the young artists started to work on a very challenging task: They wanted to combine acting, writing and playing music at the highest level and unite all of the music they were surrounded with every day from big opera and symphonic music, to film music, jazz and electronic music like dubstep and drum'n'bass underpinned with a lot of electronic instruments and effects.

Since then, Louie's Cage Percussion has been presenting sold-out shows at numerous venues, including the Konzerthaus and the Volksoper in Vienna, the Elbphilharmonie in Hamburg, the Gärtnerplatztheater in Munich and the Alte Oper in Frankfurt.
